Dear Ms. Newland:

You have intervened in the above-referenced Arizona Corporation Commission dockets. As an intervenor, you are entitled to receive copies of all filed documents. However, you may not wish to be burdened with printed copies of all documents filed in this case, especially in a large case like this one where the total pages in a docket file may run into the tens of thousands.

If you wish to elect to not receive copies of documents filed in this docket, please sign and date this letter below, and return it to me at the address below. You will still receive a short written notice of each filing in the mail. If a document is of interest, you can then request a copy of that document from the filing Party.

For filings by Arizona-American Water, the contacts are as follows:

Courtney Appelhans, Arizona-American Water, 19820 N. 7th St., Suite 201, Phoenix, AZ, 85024

As an alternative to requesting a mailed copy of a document, you may view/download a copy directly from the Commission's e-Docket website (<http://edocket.azcc.gov/>). Documents are typically posted on the day they are filed and are available to the public the next day.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Broderick, Director, Rates & Regulation
